SPECIALTY TO GO

Big Gas Bills and No Fire Protection

SENDING THE PLANT AWAY

No Place Has Yet Been Chosen by Officials,

BUT TWENTY ARE IN VIEW

Disgusted With Council Because That Road Was Never Built, and Unable to Pay the Enormous Demands of the Ohio Valley Company, It Has Been Decided to Leave the City For a Point More Favorable. The Decision Has Been Made, and the Plant Will Soon Be Moved.

It is announced today that the Specialty Glass company will within the next few months shake the dust of East Liverpool from its feet and move to some point where conditions for the manufacture of glass are to the minds of the concern's officials more favorable.

The statement was officially made this morning by Manager J. M. Manor, and is supported by the assertion of J. M. Schaffer. They have propositions from other towns, but none have yet been considered. The company have some 20 points in view, but to the present no selection has been made. They will be governed by many things in making their selection, and it will take time. But it is the intention of the company to move, and move as soon as possible.

Mr. Manor stated that the reason for the change lay in the fact that they had not the proper advantages for successfully conducting the business in this place. Several years ago application was made to the city for a road, an outlet which would allow the company to market its goods with greater ease, and protection in case of fire. The road was ordered by the court, and council discussed the matter at great length. Maps and plans were produced, and there was a vast amount of talk, but nothing came of it. The officials claim that council wanted them to sign away the right given them by the court, and, in addition, build a macadamized road at great expense. They refused, and the matter has advanced no farther. This was a great disadvantage, since it virtually cut them off from all protection against fire. It would be impossible for the department to take the heavy trucks to the plant with the road in its normal condition.

Another objection to continuing the business here is the question of gas. Fuel has always been a serious matter at the plant, and even in the days when gas was more plentiful than at present there was more or less annoyance. The recent action of the Ohio Valley in increasing rates almost one-half, has seriously handicapped them. The gas company claimed the rates made by them were in accordance with gas prices for factories in other places, but investigation showed this to be a mistake. This with the insufficient supply of gas, compelling frequent suspensions at the works, was among the most powerful arguments favoring removal. It is necessary in order to make the plant pay that it be kept constantly in operation.

The plant is supplied with water from a four inch main—another source of objection. It is also at the end of the line, and if a fire should break out in some other part of the city simultaneously with a fire at the works they would have no water. So much does this fact work against the safety of the plant that the stockholders think their fire protection is next to nothing.

The works will be moved at the earliest possible date. As soon as a site is selected the operation of taking out the machinery will begin. If they go to the gas field producers will be built in order that they will not be compelled to depend upon natural gas alone for fuel. A meeting of the directors was held last night. Mr. Manor and Mr. Schaffer declared positively the decision would not be reconsidered.

HE DESERVES HANGING.

The Infamous Saloon Keeper Should Dangle at the Other End.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Let me tell my story briefly, without any preliminaries, fol-de-rols or trimmings. I am a plain, honest workman, hating the curse of the land, the licensed or taxed saloon. I have been a drinker; but, thank God, am now a total abstainer, and my home is as happy a home as is to be found in East Liverpool. My wages are not very large, but they are sufficient to keep the wolf from the door and put by each month, in the building and loan association, a small amount against the coming of old age. My wife is a happy woman, and she praises God that her husband is redeemed from the rum demon; and like the true, good woman she is, aids and assists me in every possible manner. Further, Mr. Editor, I pray for the blessing of God to descend upon Doctor Tracy, John G. Woolley, and all such redeemed men—redeemed by the mercy of the Master, and in turn aiming, under God, to help their brethren and comrades, who are in the toils of the devil, known as alcohol. Why am I writing this? Bear with me, when I tell you that this is but the preface to a sorrowful, pitiful story, a story which might today embrace me as the drunkard, had it not been for the coming of a temperance evangelist into my life. Listen, for I am relating a plain fact:

Only a few weeks since, a workman in one of our potteries received a full pay. He has for years been a moderate drinker, and but lately has he reached the immoderate line. He took his money home with the intention of giving it to his wife; but the demon whispered in his ear and he left her but $5 with which to pay bills and provide food for the family. Then he took his way to the saloon, where he met boon companions and drank until his money was exhausted. Then he staggered to his once happy home and demanded that his wife should give him the five dollars but lately consigned to her care. The wife refused his plea, and he knocked the poor woman down, brutally kicked her, obtained possession of the money, returned to his drunken companions, and the last penny was in the saloonist's till. On Saturday last he drew the first money he has drawn since Christmas, the result of three full week's work, and, without going near his home, went first to the same den he was in the habit of visiting, staid there all night long, until 6 o'clock on Sunday morning, then staggered to his home, made his poor wife get him something to eat, returned again to the den of the devil, and was thrust out at 11 o'clock on Sunday night, without a penny in his possession, and his wife and children did not receive a cent of his hard earned wages. Surely East Liverpool is under the curse, and the prayers and tears of women and children must soon be heard and answered by the good and wise Father. Why didn't I tell the police about such breaking of the law? Ah, there's the rub. There are saloons in this city which the common roundsman dares not report; it would cost him his berth if he did, and then insisted upon his information being acted upon. I know what I am talking about. But, thank God, the handwriting is upon the wall. Certain men in office in this city have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. The day of retribution is coming. It may be slow; but it is as sure as fate, and woe be unto the transgressor when the roll is called.

THEY CAME FROM SISTERSVILLE

On the Advice of a Man on the Town-ship.

A few days ago a man applied for aid to the trustees for himself and wife. The officers wanted to know about his home, and he informed them he was a resident of Sistersville and had been here but a few days. He stated that he received a letter which informed him he would have no trouble in finding employment in the city. Further investigation proved that the man who had written the letter was himself dependent upon the trustees for support. The couple were given relief, but were told they would have to go back to Sistersville or to the infirmary.

COLD CARS.

Patrons Are Disgusted With the Service Given.

Patrons of the street car line are denouncing the company in no easy terms for the way the cars are heated. The past few days it has been almost impossible to ride in the cars without freezing, and the people think each car should be provided with a stove. Should the cold weather continue it is probable the authorities will be notified to see if something can not be done in accordance with the regulations of the state.

PALESTINE BOOMING.

The Pottery Will Be on Full Within 30 Days.

The first biscuit kiln at the new East Palestine pottery was fired this week, and it is expected the plant will be running in full inside of 30 days. There has not been a day since the recent lot sale that one or more lots have not been sold.

HE'S NOT A CANDIDATE

Doctor Taggart States His Political Position.

FAVORS A TEMPERANCE LAW

On the Line of That Mapped Out by the Anti-Saloon League—Cannot Understand Why a Man Should Be Re-elected Because It Is a Party Rule.

EDITOR OF THE NEWS REVIEW:—The suggestion of my name in your columns a few days since as a candidate for the state legislature, and the endorsement by the Wellsville Union, published in your paper yesterday, demands a statement on my part to put myself right before the public, and if possible to awaken enough interest in the different political parties in the county, to see that good and trustworthy men are put in nomination for this and all other offices.

First of all, I have to say that I am not, nor have I ever had, any intention of being a candidate for this, or any political office, in the gift of the people. I have one office which demands all the time and all the powers of body, mind and heart that I possess, and have no aspirations for any other.

If anything in the way of politics would tempt me to, even temporarily, leave my work, it would be that I might be instrumental in placing on the statute book of the state, a law that would give the people an opportunity by their direct vote to drive the saloons from their midst. But, certainly in a county where the temperance sentiment so largely prevails as it does in this, it ought not to be necessary for the minister to leave his pulpit to even work for the nomination of temperance men, much less to be a candidate for the office of representative.

I do not know that I am entitled to be called, "one of the most resolute Republicans of the land." I am afraid that I would come very far short of being so regarded by the party politicians. I fought for the success of the principles that called that party into existence, and for the most part have voted for its nominees, but not always—never when I was fully aware that they were not right on the temperance question. I heartily believe in the principles of the Republican party on the financial and industrial questions she advocates. But I believe that the questions involved in the overthrow of the liquor power is of greater importance, even as respects the relief needed in the financial and industrial world, than are any others that can engage the attention of our statesmen and lawmakers. I also believe that the time has fully come when temperance men should carry their convictions to the caucus and ballot-box, and see that men are put in nomination and elected to office who will not misrepresent them in this matter.

It is well known that a large majority of the rank and file in the Republican party, in this county, are in favor of the suppression of the saloon, and desire the adoption of a local option law, that shall enable them to declare such conviction at the ballot box. Why then should any one, who, by his vote in the last legislature, voted against the adoption of such a law, and thus misrepresented the large body of his constituents, be permitted to secure the nomination again, without any competition, simply because he is running for a second term? Is the unwritten law of the party to give a second term to a candidate, so binding that the good men of the party will submit, without protest, to let a man who has once deceived and misrepresented them go back to the legislature again? Why should such a rule prevail in the matter of selecting our lawmakers? Would it not be the part of wisdom and good sense if we get a man who is competent and trustworthy to go to the legislature, to keep him there as long as he can and will truly and efficiently represent us? One term for a man who misrepresents us is just one term too many, and should not be repeated. I therefore hope that those in the councils of the party and who have to do with bringing out the candidates will see to it that the temperance men of the party have the opportunity of expressing their convictions at the nomination and election.

If such opportunity is not afforded then relief must and will be looked for from some other source. The convictions of the people are becoming more and more deepened and settled that "the saloons must go." I know of no sooner way to have them go, from our county and from the greater part of the state of Ohio than through the adoption of the local option law advocated by the Anti-Saloon league. Let us send members to our general assembly who will work and vote for its adoption.

J. C. TAGGART.

MARTIN'S STORY.

He Told All About the Counting of Money at the Treasury.

Lisbon, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The case of John R. Martin against Jesse Kepner to recover $7,901.23, the amount of the county treasury deficit during Martin's administration, was commenced this morning.

Martin became treasurer Sept. 2, 1890, and according to the settlement between Kepner and Martin there was $31,332.82 in the treasury, for which amount, after the official examination, Martin gave a receipt to Kepner. The discovery of the deficit and the claim that Kepner had secured more than his due, is shown in Martin's testimony. It follows:

"I did not assist in the count, but signed a receipt which Dan Firestone had written, and I did not know what I signed for. The money was taken out of the vault by Kepner, and he put it back. After the examination Jesse went to the safe, and got a half bushel basket full of $500 packages which he took out of the office. I counted the money the next morning, and found $23,431. I had deposited $9,000 in Firestones' bank, but that was included in my count."

A pencil memorandum, almost obliterated, made by Martin on this day to the effect that he had received this amount was produced, and taken as evidence. Martin continued:

"I kept a book which we called the Jesse book, in which was an account of what Kepner owed me. In the December collection, 1893, this book disappeared, and I have never found it."

The cross-examination is now in progress.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Lower Region Sheet Makes Very Many Blunders.

The lower region sheet of last evening states that Doctor Tracy demanded of Rev. J. M. Huston, pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, a retraction of language made use of by the latter against the former, under threat of a libel suit. Doctor Tracy did nothing of the kind. The same unreliable sheet states that Reverend Huston again declared war upon Doctor Tracy yesterday from the pulpit. The reverend gentleman did nothing of the kind. The same unreliable journal states that Doctor Tracy was to arrive in this city from Toronto, but did not reach here up to 3 p. m. Doctor Tracy reached East Liverpool at 1 o'clock p. m., yesterday, transacted the business he came to attend to, and returned to Toronto on the afternoon train. Truly the lower region sheet is not much of a newspaper, as an item of two sticks of matter contains two absolute mistakes and a blundering blunder.

A BUSY SESSION.

Council Will Have as Much as It Can Do Tonight.

The regular session of city council this evening will probably be a long one, as there is much business to transact. The petition of the street car people will be read, but the ordinance will probably go over to its third reading. A new curfew ordinance will be introduced, and a proposition will be submitted from the Pennsylvania company in regard to the Eighth street culvert. The appointment of a policeman by Mayor Gilbert will be discussed and the light committee will report on the location of the new lights. In addition, minor business will be transacted.

A NEW ROAD.

It Will Be Built From Georgetown to the Bridge.

The citizens of Georgetown, Pa., are securing the right of way for a road from their village to the end of the bridge. The point directly opposite Line Island is the only place where any trouble would be experienced in building the road, as it is very steep. The petition is being signed by many of the leading people of that section, and as soon as possible the matter will be laid before the authorities of Hancock and Beaver counties. The road has long been needed, and would be of great advantage to the people in this city.

HE HAS A SURPRISE.

Mayor Gilbert Will Say Nothing About the New Policeman.

There is considerable speculation at present as to who Mayor Gilbert will appoint to fill the vacancy on the police force. The mayor steadily refuses to say who he will choose, but remarks that the people will be considerably surprised, as his selection is somebody they are not thinking of in connection with the appointment. Another question is how the councilmen stand on the matter. They may refuse to confirm the choice of the mayor.

Is the unwritten law of the party to give a second term to a candidate, so binding that the good men of the party will submit, without protest, to let a man who has once deceived and misrepresented them go back to the legislature again? Why should such a rule prevail in the matter of selecting our lawmakers? Would it not be the part of wisdom and good sense if we get a man who is competent and trustworthy to go to the legislature, to keep him there as long as he can and will truly and efficiently represent us? One term for a man who misrepresents us is just one term too many, and should not be repeated. I therefore hope that those in the councils of the party and who have to do with bringing out the candidates will see to it that the temperance men of the party have the opportunity of expressing their convictions at the nomination and election.

If such opportunity is not afforded then relief must and will be looked for from some other source. The convictions of the people are becoming more and more deepened and settled that "the saloons must go." I know of no sooner way to have them go, from our county and from the greater part of the state of Ohio than through the adoption of the local option law advocated by the Anti-Saloon league. Let us send members to our general assembly who will work and vote for its adoption.

MARTIN'S STORY.

He Told All About the Counting of Money at the Treasury.

LISBON, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The case of John R. Martin against Jesse Kepner to recover $7,901.23, the amount of the county treasury deficit during Martin's administration, was commenced this morning.

Martin became treasurer Sept. 2, 1890, and according to the settlement between Kepner and Martin there was $31,332.82 in the treasury, for which amount, after the official examination, Martin gave a receipt to Kepner. The discovery of the deficit and the claim that Kepner had secured more than his due, is shown in Martin's testimony. It follows:

"I did not assist in the count, but signed a receipt which Dan Firestone had written, and I did not know what I signed for. The money was taken out of the vault by Kepner, and he put it back. After the examination Jesse went to the safe, and got a half bushel basket full of $500 packages which he took out of the office. I counted the money the next morning, and found $23,431. I had deposited $9,000 in Firestones' bank, but that was included in my count."

A pencil memorandum, almost obliterated, made by Martin on this day to the effect that he had received this amount was produced, and taken as evidence. Martin continued:

"I kept a book which we called the Jesse book, in which was an account of what Kepner owed me. In the December collection, 1893, this book disappeared, and I have never found it."

The cross-examination is now in progress.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Lower Region Sheet Makes Very Many Blunders.

The lower region sheet of last evening states that Doctor Tracy demanded of Rev. J. M. Huston, pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, a retraction of language made use of by the latter against the former, under threat of a libel suit. Doctor Tracy did nothing of the kind. The same unreliable sheet states that Reverend Huston again declared war upon Doctor Tracy yesterday from the pulpit. The reverend gentleman did nothing of the kind. The same unreliable journal states that Doctor Tracy was to arrive in this city from Toronto, but did not reach here up to 3 p. m. Doctor Tracy reached East Liverpool at 1 o'clock p. m., yesterday, transacted the business he came to attend to, and returned to Toronto on the afternoon train. Truly the lower region sheet is not much of a newspaper, as an item of two sticks of matter contains two absolute mistakes and a blundering blunder.

A BUSY SESSION.

Council Will Have as Much as It Can Do Tonight.

The regular session of city council this evening will probably be a long one, as there is much business to transact. The petition of the street car people will be read, but the ordinance will probably go over to its third reading. A new curfew ordinance will be introduced, and a proposition will be submitted from the Pennsylvania company in regard to the Eighth street culvert. The appointment of a policeman by Mayor Gilbert will be discussed and the light committee will report on the location of the new lights. In addition, minor business will be transacted.

A NEW ROAD.

It Will Be Built From Georgetown to the Bridge.

The citizens of Georgetown, Pa., are securing the right of way for a road from their village to the end of the bridge. The point directly opposite Line Island is the only place where any trouble would be experienced in building the road, as it is very steep. The petition is being signed by many of the leading people of that section, and as soon as possible the matter will be laid before the authorities of Hancock and Beaver counties. The road has long been needed, and would be of great advantage to the people in this city.

HE HAS A SURPRISE.

Mayor Gilbert Will Say Nothing About the New Policeman.

There is considerable speculation at present as to who Mayor Gilbert will appoint to fill the vacancy on the police force. The mayor steadily refuses to say who he will choose, but remarks that the people will be considerably surprised, as his selection is somebody they are not thinking of in connection with the appointment. Another question is how the councilmen stand on the matter. They may refuse to confirm the choice of the mayor.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JAN. 26.

GENERAL WEYLER continues, in his own positive language, to "put down the
rebellion," but it's only in words, it will
be observed.

THERE are good many Republicans who believe that the Chicago man is not
of the right Gage to make a secretary of the treasury.

It is sincerely hoped that council will look with favor upon the curfew ordinance. A law of that kind is sadly needed in East Liverpool.

This is the time when the charitable man can do a vast deal of good. The poor are never in such dire want as
when the horrors of freezing are added
to the suffering of starvation.

MR. BRYAN was so touched by the criticism of his cross of gold and crown
of thorns that he devotes a paragraph in his book to explaining it. And still some of them believe William is a statesman.

THERE is no reason to believe that Major McKinley will not choose for his advisers the most able men of the party.
The gentleman has a fad of doing
the right thing at the right time with
the right men.

The country expects to see a new tariff bill in operation the first day of the next fiscal year. That seems the earliest date possible, and if it is not delayed beyond that time there can be no good cause for serious complaint.

THE Pittsburg Post is making a great
noise about the poor of the Southside,
forgetting that the iniquitous tariff legislation it has always favored is responsible for those scenes of misery and poverty it so graphically describes.

AND now some of the knowing ones
are saying Lieutenant Governor Jones
has been selected as the new Ohio member of that senate club, but Governor Bushnell declares he can't see it that
way. The governor is probably right.

LUCKY is the man born in Ohio, and
particularly in Columbiana county.
Captain Henry King, who was reared in Salem, has been made editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, filling the position made vacant by the death of Joe McCullough.

SIPPING IN STREET CARS.

The boards of health in New York, Chicago and other leading cities of the country have ordered that passengers
must not spit in street cars, and the orders are being rigidly enforced. They base their position upon the knowledge that promiscuous expectoration is dangerous in the extreme, and diseases of all kinds can be spread in this manner.
The orders were only issued after deliberation, and it is but right to presume that the evil should be abolished.
If the practice is dangerous in other cities it is equally dangerous in East Liverpool. What is to prevent our own council from passing a similar law?
Why can't the patrons of the East Liverpool and Wellsville be made to consider the public health as they do in other places?

DROPPING INTO LINE.

It is gratifying to know that the outlook for the passage of a tariff bill grows brighter with every day. The elections in the various state legislatures last week show that after the first week of March 44 Republicans will sit in the senate, and there are a sufficient number of contests with probable Republican results to make the situation appear even brighter. It is claimed that Senators Mantle, of Montana, Jones, of Nevada, and Cannon, of Utah, with all their love for silver, are tariff men at heart and will support the measure when it comes to a vote. With what other force will be gathered to its aid there is no danger that the special session will fail in passing a tariff bill, and the industrial world will not have long to wait for the improvement so anxiously expected.

COLLECTOR DOWLING REMOVED.

He Was Accused of Taking Too Active
a Part in Politics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The president
has removed from office Joseph H.
Dowling, internal revenue collector at Cincinnati, for violations of the civil service rules against collecting or receiving money for campaign purposes.
It is understood that the alleged offense
was committed two and a half years ago and that Mr. Dowling's part in it consisted in his receiving money which had been collected by one of his deputies.

The matter was only recently brought
to the attention of the civil service commission, and an investigation was at once set on foot with the result that Mr.
Dowling was found guilty of receiving the money, as stated. The report of the commission was handed to the president a day or two ago, and the removal followed. It is thought probable that Mr. Cleveland will not appoint a successor to Mr. Dowling, but will allow the matter to go over to the Mc-Kinley administration. Chief Deputy Herman F. Cellarius has been designated to act as collector until another appointment is made.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—Friends nearest
to Collector Dowling say he will not attempt to resist the president's order
for his removal. This decision is the outcome of his conference with his attorneys. Their opinion seems to be that since the repeal of the tenure of office law the president is supreme in
these matters.

Following Dowling's removal the
secretary of the treasury, under direction of the president, also removed Joseph F. Kinnings, deputy collector of internal revenue and chief in charge of storekeepers and gaugers. Kinnings also is removed on the complaint of the civil service commission. There are reports that other removals will be made here and in the revenue office at Owensboro, Ky.

SECRETARY HERBERT SUSTAINED.

One Point in His Report Proven on Examination of Carnegie Books.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Secretary
Herbert has sent to congress matter to be used as a supplement to his report on armor plate. It appears that after the secretary's original report was printed President Leishman, of the Carnegie company, wrote the secretary
taking exception to the secretary's comments upon the cost of the armor plate
of that concern and asking that experts be sent to inspect the company's books. In response to this invitation Messrs. Alger and Dunham were sent to investigate and report. Commenting on these reports the secretary says:

It will be seen that these two gentlemen, who are competent and trustworthy, find, from an inspection of the books of the Carnegie Steel company,
that the amount of the investment of
that company in plant is over $3,000,- 000, the amount given by the company
and commented upon in my report.
The result of this investigation is gratifying, in that it sustains the conclusion
at which I arrived in the report, namely, that the estimate made by me should proceed upon the theory that the cost of the plant of the Carnegie company was $3,000,000, as stated by the company.

To this the secretary adds:
"It will be observed that the offer of the Carnegie company to exhibit its books was limited to the question of the cost of the plant."

Reason in the Lower Animals.

We have a fox terrier whose happiness was complete until Dodgerfield came. She is very affectionate, consequently very jealous. If looks and growls would kill, Dodgerfield would die many times a day. Both dogs eat from the same plate, but not at the same time. One day last week we fed Dodgerfield first. The fox terrier was very hungry and begged hard for first dinner. Dodger seemed to eat more slowly than usual, and Nettie watched dolefully.

Finally hunger got the better of her homesty, and she barked sharply three short barks. Dodger left his plate and sprang to the window, looking excitedly up and down the road. Nettie looked neither to the right nor the left, but made straight for the plate of food as soon as Dodger's back was turned. If this was not an exhibition of reason and human intelligence, then mankind in general possesses a large degree of animal "instinct."—Dog Fancier.

Dime Museum Fun.

"Oh, that I could find the key to your obdurate heart!" sighed the living skeleton, gazing fondly at the fat lady.
"I'll tell you right now that it ain't no skeleton key," said the fat lady in scorn, and the two headed girl performed a laughing duet in minor.—Indian-

A Note of Warning.

A number of the remedies commonly used for throat trouble have but little merit. The indiscriminate and careless use of some of them is attended with positive danger.

As a prominent example, Chlorate of Potash probably does a great deal more harm than good. Many people, when suffering from sore throat and like troubles, carry crystals or tablets of Chlorate of Potash in their pockets, and eat them almost like candy. Chlorate of Potash has a decided direct action on the kidneys and its unwise use in frequent and large doses irritates these organs and leads to really serious results, especially so in children.

Some may think this is sounding a false and needless alarm but as a single proof we wish to state that we have before us the November, 1894, copy of the Indiana Medical Journal, wherein are reported two deaths clearly due directly to this habit of using Chlorate of Potash with no regard to its powerful properties.

In the past there may have been some excuse for people trifling with dangerous and powerful drugs in the home treatment of Sore Throat, Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy, as there was a lack of a valuable cure for these diseases. A remedy has recently been placed on sale specially for this class of troubles and it is meeting with a well-merited success, as every prudent mother wants such a remedy at hand. Its name is Tonsiline. It never fails. Your dealer has it in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

HEROD OF HAVANA.

Turpie's Characterization of
Weyler in the Senate.

FIERCE ATTACK ON THE SPANIARD.

The Indiana Senator Denied the Right of the President to Prevent Recognition, If Congress So Decees—Warm Sympathy Expressed For the Cubans.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Cuba has again come to the front in the senate.

Mr. Chandler presented a bill providing that no person shall be tried in the courts of the United States for acts in aid of the republic of Cuba. The resolution was referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Turpie (Dem., Ind.) spoke on the Cameron resolution for the recognition of the independence of Cuba.

Spain's title to Cuba, Mr. Turpie
said, was not one she could alienate to any power but the United States, nor could Spain retain her own title to the island when its inhabitants concluded that the sovereigns of Spain and her advisers were cruel enemies and oppressors of the people. One of the great principles established in the western hemisphere was that a people held the inalienable right to establish their own form of government. The senator traced the bloody struggle of Cuba to establish her own form of government.
There had not been ten years of peace since 1850. This present war was but a second period of the first war. It was inspired by the same hopes and directed by the same leaders.

The end in view was to throw off Spain's control of Cuba and give it to the Cuban people. What was the United States to do in this state, must congress, he asked, wait for the executive branch to act, and in answer he presented many opinions to show that the
"commerce clause" of the constitution, giving congress power over commerce, was not restricted to trade and traffic, but was a commerce meaning
"intercourse" and extended to the intercourse between the United States
and all foreign governments and people.

This power of congress was so primary and paramount, Mr. Turpie asserted, that congress could execute the powers of the president, even to the appointment of a postmaster, a minister or an ambassador, if the executive branch failed to perform its functions
as established by law. When congress made a law as to the relation which the United States was to sustain toward a foreign government it could perform all acts to carry this law into execution, even to the appointment of temporary diplomatic officers in case the executive failed to act.

The senator said there was close analogy between the admission of a new state and the recognition of a new government. Congress had the paramount power as to admitting a state. When it made a law admitting a state that state must come in. The president might withhold the proclamation, might refuse to appoint officers, but the law stood and the state must ultimately come in.
And pending this executive inaction congress could direct the paramount power to "hance temporary federal officers for the new state in order that the new state should not be nullified.
In these and like powers the rights of congress were primary, while that of the president was ancillary and secondary. By the same line of reasoning Mr. Turpie held that congress had the right to recognize a nation as it did a
new state.

Recognition of a new government might be made in several ways by sending a minister, by receiving a minister,
by proclamation or by treaty. But in all cases it was the execution of the president's ancillary power. While the president's action was final in such cases, yet his inaction was not and congress, after waiting a reasonable time, could direct the president to recognize a new government and send a minister. Every line of the constitution, said Mr. Turpie, leads up to the supremacy of the people as represented by congress, and not to the supremacy of the president.

Mr. Turpie said the passage of the Cameron resolution as to Cuba would be the exercise of but a small part of the paramount power of congress. The senator had at first favored due deference to the president as to Cuban resolutions, but owing to a recent statement of the secretary of state all deference had been put aside, and if put aside on one hand, there was no one obligation for its observation by either side.

Mr. Turpie said he had evidence before him that the Cuban people had a complete organization, with courts, etc., as far back as October of last year.
Spain herself admits the existence of a belligerent army, and all her acts are in recognition of the fact that war is in progress. If this was not true why were the troops built across the island?
Why, if not to prevent the insurgents from taking possession of Havana? The senator showed a limitation of Spanish authority as the Roman wall in Britain showed a limitation of Roman authority in that island.

How inconsiderate to say, said Mr.
Turpie, that the death of Maceo ended the contest. "Maceo is dead, but the Cuban cause still lives," he exclaimed.
He went on to speak of the fall of General Warren and General Montgomery in American annals. Their deaths had not stopped the independence of the United States. The senator recalled the circumstances of Maceo's death and the report that Dr. Zertuche, for $50,000, had betrayed Maceo to his death. Spain winced under this charge, he said, and added: "This General Weyler, who uses his sword against women and children, this general, who meets the foe with paper bullets, this Herod of Havana, was compelled to issue a denial of the report."

The senator threw intense vigor into his characterization of the "Herod of Havana" and there was a noticeable stir in the galleries. "This indescribably diminutive reptile who is termed captain general of Cuba," Mr. Turpie went on, "gave no title to Maceo in issuing this denial, although Maceo was a major general." The senator said Weyler's course recalled that of enemies of the United States who addressed the first president as Mr. Washington. Mr. Turpie paid a glowing tribute to Maceo and said that like the memory of American heroes to Americans so would the memory of Maceo be perpetuated in the hearts of the people of Cuba Libre.

The existence of the Cuban republic
with complete functions, giving protection to its people in the state of Oriente
alone was so patent that recognition should be made before the next sun sets.

Speaking of the advantage of recognizing the belligerency of the insurgents, Mr. Turpie said it would give the insurgent government a status in issuing bonds; it would permit the granting of letters of marque and reprisal for the fitting out of privateers;
it would break the marine trocha around the shores of Cuba which was infinitely more menacing than the
"wire fence trocha" on the islands; it would drive Spanish commerce from
the ocean; it would bring complete recognition to the new republic; it would submerge Spanish bonds and securities, already down to the zero mark.

The senator read the statement that
a Spanish certificate had been on sale
recently in New York bringing on the first bid 10 cents and on the second bid 11 cents on the dollar.

MRS. M'KINLEY IN CHICAGO.

Different People Visit the Major Urging Appointments.

CANTON, O., Jan. 26.—The westbound
Pennsylvania train last night carried
Mrs. McKinley and her sister, Mrs. M.
C. Barber, and Captain Heistand as passengers. They are to be the guests of Captain and Mrs. McWilliams of Chicago, their cousins, for several days.
At present Major McKinley does not expect to join his wife in Chicago.

When the Tennesseans had said what they could for H. Clay Evans, and Brooklyn had paved the way for a genuine boom of Congressman Francis M. Wilson of Brooklyn by a larger delegation, Fremont Alder of the San Francisco Bulletin secured an audience to say a few words for Judge Waymire for the interior portfolio. He says the place will go to his man or to Judge McKenna, and will not admit that the chances of the latter are not one whit better than those of the man he meas to boom.

Judge Richard Yates of Chicago came here to say a word for a personal friend seeking a minor position. The judge and Major McKinley are old friends.

James A. Garfield, Jr., one of the state senators of Ohio, was here a short time and in consultation with the major. He is an intimate friend and his visit did not necessarily have any political significance.

W. J. BRYAN'S BOOK.

The First Copy Will Be Bound In About One Week.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The last pages of "The First Battle," the Hon. W. J.
Bryan's book have gone to press, and the W. B. Conkey company, the publishers, expect to have the first copy bound in about a week. The book contains a story of the campaign of 1890, its important events and issues and includes the most noteworthy incidents of Mr. Bryan's famous tour. It also contains the principal addresses and documents relating to the silver movement and some of Mr. Bryan's speeches.
Considerable space is given to his connection with the silver agitation while in congress and prior to the Chicago convention and to a discussion of the election returns and an analysis of the political situation.

One of the interesting features of the book is the biographical sketch written by Mrs. Bryan.
"The First Battle" is dedicated to the Hon. Richard P. Bland of Missouri, General James B. Weaver of Iowa and the Hon. Henry M. Teller of Colorado, whom the authors consider "the foremost champions of bimetalism in their respective parties."

REFORM OF BANKING LAWS.

This, Instead of Protection, Would Give Prosperity Says a Republican.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Mr. Johnson (Rep., Ind.) took advantage of the latitude allowed in debate in the house to read a speech in favor of an early reform in our banking and currency laws.
He described the depressed condition which existed during the recent campaign and argued that unless the incoming Republican administration corrected the evils it would be swept out of power in 1900 and the country would suffer loss and disaster which it would take years to eradicate. He insisted that those who believed the enactment of a protective tariff would restore prosperity would be disappointed. Unless there was a thorough and adequate revision of our banking and currency laws he said there could be no lasting prosperity.

He agreed with the president that the great banks should be retired. He thought that in the establishment of a broader banking system the banks should have the privilege of issuing notes against their assets.

Amount of Grain and Value.

suming most of the time in disposing of District of Columbia business the House took up the Indian appropriation bill and made fair progress with it. The conference report on the immigration bill was presented and Mr. Danford (O.), who has charge of it, gave notice that he would call the report up on Wednesday.

Bank Failure at Potsdam, N. Y.

POTSDAM, N. Y., Jan. 26.—The Potsdam National bank, with a capital stock of $250,000, has been closed by a national bank examiner. A notice on the door reads: "All depositors will be paid in full." The failure of the Peace-field Falls Pulp and Paper company about a week ago is said to have caused the failure.

Condition of the Treasury.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JAN. 26

GENERAL WEYLER continues, in his

own positive language, to "put down the

rebellion," but it's only in words, it will

be observed.

THERE are a good many Republicans

who believe that the Chicago man is not

of the right Gage to make a secretary of

the treasury.

It is sincerely hoped that council will look with favor upon the curfew ordinance.

A law of that kind is sadly

needed in East Liverpool.

This is the time when the charitable

man can do a vast deal of good. The

poor are never in such dire want as

when the horrors of freezing are added

to the suffering of starvation.

MR. BRYAN was so touched by the

criticism of his cross of gold and crown

of thorns that he devotes a paragraph in

his book to explaining it. And still

some of them believe William is a

statesman.

THERE is no reason to believe that

Major McKinley will not choose for his

advisers the most able men of the party.

The gentleman has a fashion of doing

the right men.

This country expects to see a new tariff

bill in operation the first day of the next

fiscal year. That seems the earliest date

possible, and if it is not delayed beyond

that time there can be no good cause for

serious complaint.

The Pittsburg Post is making a great

noise about the poor of the Southside,

forgetting that the iniquitous tariff

legislation it has always favored is responsible for those scenes of misery and

poverty it so graphically describes.

AND now some of the knowing ones

are saying Lieutenant Governor Jones

has been selected as the new Ohio member of that senate club, but Governor

Bushnell declares he can't see it that

way. The governor is probably right.

LUCKY is the man born in Ohio, and

particularly in Columbiana county.

Captain Henry King, who was reared in Salem, has been made editor of the

St. Louis Globe-Democrat, filling the

position made vacant by the death of

Joe McCullough.

SPITTING IN STREET CARS.

The boards of health in New York,

Chicago and other leading cities of the

country have ordered that passengers

orders are being rigidly enforced. They

base their position upon the knowledge

that promiscuous expectoration is dangerous in the extreme, and diseases of

all kinds can be spread in this manner.

The orders were only issued after

deliberation, and it is but right to pre-

sume that the evil should be abolished.

If the practice is dangerous in other

COLLECTOR DOWLING REMOVED.

He Was Accused of Taking Too Active

a Part in Politics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The president

has removed from office Joseph H.

Dowling, internal revenue collector at

Cincinnati, for violations of the civil

service rules against collecting or receiving money for campaign purposes.

It is understood that the alleged offense

was committed two and a half years

ago and that Mr. Dowling's part in it

consisted in his receiving money which

had been collected by one of his

deputies.

The matter was only recently brought

to the attention of the civil service com-

mission, and an investigation was at

once set on foot with the result that Mr.

Dowling was found guilty of receiving the money, as stated. The report of the commission was handed to the president a day or two ago, and the removal followed. It is thought probable

that Mr. Cleveland will not appoint a

successor to Mr. Dowling, but will allow the matter to go over to the Mc-

Kinley administration. Chief Deputy

Herman F. Cellarius has been designated to act as collector until another

appointment is made.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—Friends nearest

to Collector Dowling say he will not

outcome of his conference with his attorneys. Their opinion seems to be that

since the repeal of the tenure of

office law the president is supreme in

these matters.

Following Dowling's removal the

secretary of the treasury, under direction of the president, also removed Joseph

F. Kinnings, deputy collector of

internal revenue and chief in charge of

storekeepers and gaugers. Kinnings

also is removed on the complaint of the civil service commission. There are reports that other removals will be made

here and in the revenue office at Owens-

boro, Ky.

SECRETARY HERBERT SUSTAINED.

One Point in His Report Proven on Examination of Carnegie Books.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Secretary

Herbert has sent to congress matter to

be used as a supplement to his report

on armor plate. It appears that after

the secretary's original report was printed President Loishman, of the Carnegie company, wrote the secretary

taking exception to the secretary's comments upon the cost of the armor plate

of that concern and asking that experts be sent to inspect the company's

books. In response to this invitation

Messrs. Alger and Dunham were sent

to investigate and report. Commenting

on these reports the secretary says:

"It will be seen that these two gentleman, who are competent and trustworthy, find, from an inspection of the

books of the Carnegie Steel company,

that the amount of the investment of

that company in plant is over $5,000,-

000, the amount given by the company

and commented upon in my report.

The result of this investigation is grati-

fying, in that it sustains the conclusion

at which I arrived in the report, namely, that the estimate made therein should proceed upon the theory that the cost of the plant of the Carnegie company was $5,000,000, as stated by the

company."

To this the secretary adds:

"It will be observed that the offer of

the Carnegie company to exhibit its

HEROD OF HAVANA.

Turpie's Characterization of

Weyler in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Cuba has

again come to the front in the senate.

Mr. Chandler presented a bill providing that no person shall be tried in the

courts of the United States for acts in

aid of the republic of Cuba. The resolu-

committee.

Mr. Turpie (Dem., Ind.) spoke on the

Cameron resolution for the recognition

of the independence of Cuba.

Spain's title to Cuba, Mr. Turpie

said, was not one she could alienate to

any power but the United States, nor

could Spain retain her own title to the island when its inhabitants concluded that the sovereigns of Spain and her adversaries were cruel enemies and oppressors of the people. One of the great principles established in the western

hemisphere was that a people held the

unalienable right to establish their own

form of government. The senator

traced the bloody struggle of Cuba to

establish her own form of government.

There had not been ten years of peace

since 1850. This present war was but a second period of the first war. It was

inspired by the same hopes and directed

by the same leaders.

The end in view was to throw off

Spain's control of Cuba and give to the

Cuban people. What was the United States to do in this state, must congress, he asked, wait for the executive

branch to act, and in answer he presented many opinions to show that the

"commerce clause" of the constitution,

giving congress power over commerce was not restricted to trade and

traffic, but was a commerce meaning

"intercourse" and extended to the intercourse between the United States

and all foreign governments and people.

This power of congress was so primary and paramount, Mr. Turpie asserted, that congress could execute the powers of the president, even to the

appointment of a postmaster, a minister or an ambassador, if the executive

branch failed to perform its functions

as established by law. When congress

made a law as to the relation which the United States was to sustain toward a foreign government it could perform all acts to carry this law into execution,

even to the appointment of temporary

diplomatic officers in case the executive failed to act.

The senator said there was close analogy between the admission of a new

state and the recognition of a new government. Congress had the paramount power as to admitting a state. When it made a law admitting a state that state must come in. The president might withhold the proclamation, but the law stood and the state must ultimately come in. And pending this executive inaction congress had the paramount power to name temporarily federal

officers for the new state in order that

the new state should not be nullified.

In these and like powers the rights of the president was annihilated and secondary. By the same line of reasoning

Mr. Turpie held that congress had the right to recognize a nation as it did a

new state.

Recognition of a new government

might be made in several ways, by sending a minister, by receiving a minister,

by proclamation or by treaty. But in

all cases it was the execution of the president's authority. While the tribute to Maceo and said that like the

memory of American heroes to Americans so would the memory of Maceo be

perpetuated in the hearts of the people

of Cuba Libre.

The existence of the Cuban republic

with complete functions, giving protection to its people in the state of Oriente

alone was so patent that recognition

should be made before the next sun

sets.

Speaking of the advantage of recognizing the belligerency of the insurgents, Mr. Turpie said it would give

the insurgent government a status in

issuing bonds; it would permit the

granting of letters of marque and re-

prisal for the fitting out of privateers;

it would break the marine trocha

around the shores of Cuba which was

infinitely more menacing than the

"wire fence trocha" on the islands; it

would drive Spanish commerce from

the ocean; it would bring complete

recognition to the new republic; it would submerge Spanish bonds and securities, already down to the zero

mark.

The senator read the statement that

a Spanish certificate had been on sale

recently in New York bringing on the

first bid 10 cents and on the second bid

11 cents on the dollar.

MRS. MCKINLEY IN CHICAGO.

Different People Visit the Major Urging

Appointments.

CANTON, O., Jan. 26.—The westbound

Pennsylvania train last night carried

Mrs. McKinley and her sister, Mrs. M.

C. Barber, and Captain Heistand as

of Captain and Mrs. McWilliams of

Chicago, their cousins, for several days.

At present Major McKinley does not expect to join his wife in Chicago.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT.

Intense Cold Continues All Over the Country.

LOWEST TEMPERATURE KNOWN

Throughout the Ohio Valley and the Lake Region—Fair Weather Will Prevail Likely All of Today—Much Colder Weather Promised for the South.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The reports received by the weather bureau show the intense cold wave to be general over the entire United States and there are no indications of relief at present.

The temperature has fallen decidedly in the southern and middle Atlantic states and it has risen slowly in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valley and over the greater portion of the lake regions. It continues below zero as far south as the Ohio valley and it is below freezing on the Texas coast and generally in the interior of the gulf states.

The weather is generally clear except in the St. Lawrence valley, the gulf states and central Rocky mountain districts, where local snows are reported.

The indications are that generally fair weather will prevail all of today in the central valleys and on the Atlantic coast north of Florida. The temperature will continue low, but will rise slowly in the states of the central and upper Mississippi valley. It will be much colder on the southern Atlantic and east gulf coasts with freezing weather in Northern Florida tonight.

Throughout the Ohio valley and the lake region the prevailing cold wave has been accompanied by lower temperature than any previously recorded by the weather bureau for this season of the year. Following are some minimum temperatures, with their relation to the lowest previously recorded during the last ten days of January, viz:

Chicago, minus 20 degrees, 3 degrees below; Indianapolis, minus 14, 3 degrees below; Cincinnati, minus 10, 2 degrees below; Pittsburgh, minus 8, 6 degrees below; Detroit, minus 14, 6 degrees below; Sault Ste Marie, minus 18, 6 degrees below.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—In the suburbs the mercury was reported all the way from 30 to 40 below, but the official thermometer at the weather bureau office gave 26 below as the lowest. Edmonton with 26 below was the coldest place, officially, in the northwest. Duluth and Moorhead both recorded 28 and Bismarck, Miles City, Helena and Huron gave 24.

Bismarck, S. D., Jan. 26.—The wind is still blowing 30 miles an hour and the temperature is 22 below. Trains are snowbound. There is undoubtedly much suffering among farmers and others exposed to the storm's fury and many have probably perished. The loss of cattle on the ranges will be frightful.

Bozeman, Mont., Jan. 26.—The thermometer fell 48 degrees in ten hours and in the first 24 hours fell 60 degrees, something never known before. It has been 28 below.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 26.—The thermometer here registered 22 below. It is clear and still.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 26.—Railroad traffic is delayed on both the Northwestern and St. Paul roads and cars have been abandoned on the Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha electric road.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 26.—The storm has abated but the intense cold prevails all over the state. Thermometers registered 25 below.

Huron, S. D., Jan. 26.—The most complete snow blockade in the history of this portion of the northwest since 1881 now prevails. Here the temperature registered 26 below zero and touched 30 in other sections. Fears are entertained for settlers in the remote districts, where fuel is scarce.

The Chicago and Northwestern has sent a plow to open the line to Pierre and relieve the eastbound express, which has been held at Highmore since Saturday morning. This train has 40 passengers. The Chicago and Milwaukee road in completely blockaded here and the Great Northern will not be open for several days.

New York, Jan. 26.—The threatening anticyclone of the weather for some time past, culminated in the most severe cold throughout the state of New York ever known this season.

In New York city the mercury got down to the record point of the year and in the upper part of the state it succeeded in disappearing almost entirely. Reports from Canada indicate an even more rigorous condition of affairs, but it was in the large cities of this state that the most painful effects of the cold wave were the most painfully apparent. The poor of this city suffered terribly for they had not alone to contend against the low temperature, but against a biting wind that opened up the crevices and cut its way through the broken windows and under the doors.

The thermometer registered 5 degrees below and the wind blew about 20 miles an hour. Along the coast the gale was of a more furious nature, and vessels that arrived over the bar came with their decks well loaded down with ice and their masts covered with the frozen masses of water.

In other parts of the state a terrific snowstorm has been raging in that section. The New York train to that place was late, and the Chateaugay from Plattsburg, at the time of writing, was an hour and a half overdue and seemed to have been lost somewhere in the snow drifts.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Captain Joyce, commanding the Fourth district, in which the poor of St. Louis live, reports widespread destitution and suffering. The river business was at a standstill on account of the cold weather.

Burlington, Ia., Jan. 26.—The mercury reached 22 degrees below zero.

Pittsburg, Jan. 26.—The thermometer reached 7 degrees below here.

There is much suffering among the poor.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 26.—The cold in this territory is the most severe since 1893, and many cases of acute suffering are reported among the poor who were unprepared for it.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The weather is moderating very slightly, it being about 2 degrees warmer. Great suffering prevails. Relief measures have been inaugurated.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 26.—The temperature fell to the lowest point in this country recorded for years. Fifty below zero was generally reported from the Red river to Banff in the mountains. The weather is now moderating considerably.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—With a minimum of 20 degrees below zero and a maximum of 10 degrees below yesterday was the coldest day in the history of Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Decidedly the coldest weather of the winter is being experienced here, the thermometer descending close to the zero point.

LIL AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Ex-Queen and the President Talked For About Twenty Minutes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—President Cleveland has received a visit from ex-Queen Liliuokalani at the White House. The president greeted the ex-queen in the most kindly fashion, expressing pleasure at her call and stating that he should have felt disappointed had she refrained from making him a visit while she was in Washington. He caused her to be seated, and while the others stood in the background the president and Liliuokalani chatted with evident interest on both sides for 20 minutes.

In all the talk there was no reference to politics save a brief expression of thanks by Liliuokalani in behalf of the Hawaiian race for his action in withdrawing the annexation treaty which was pending before the senate when the president assumed his office four years ago. Not one word was said about "restoration," either past, present or future. The ex-queen referred in feeling terms to the death of Mr. Willis, and the president responded by an eulogy upon the late minister, whom he denominated "a man of sterling honesty, never afraid to do his full duty."

A REPORT MADE TO CONGRESS.

Thirty-Six Have Been Released, 18 Expelled From the Island and 17 Cases Are Still Pending—Nine Newspaper Correspondents Have Been Expelled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—

Responding to a resolution of inquiry the president has sent to the senate a list of persons claiming to be citizens of the United States who have been arrested on the island of Cuba since Feb. 24, 1895. The list was accompanied by a letter from Secretary Olney, in which he states that since the breaking out of the insurrection to the present time 74 such persons have been arrested, while of these seven have been tried. These are Julio Sanguilly, Louis Semeillan, Alfred Laborde, William Gildea, Ona Melton, Charles Barnett and William Leavitt. In the cases of Sanguilly and Semeillan, he says, appeals have been taken and in the cases of the other five competitor prisoners a new trial has been ordered. Thirty-six of the persons arrested have been released, after the charges against them had been investigated and found to be baseless. Eighteen have been expelled from the island after periods of confinement lasting from a few days to a year, while 17 cases are still pending. The charges against 14 of these are as follows:

Sedition and rebellion—Caspar A. Betancourt, Joseph L. Cepero. Rebellion with arms in hand—Mannet Fernandez Chacnelo, Oscar Cepedez, Frank Agramante and Thomas Julio Sainz. Purchase and concealment of arms and ammunition—Antonio Suarez Delavilla. Disorderly conduct and insults to Spain—Theodore L. Vives. Landing arms—The five of the competitor crew mentioned.

In the remaining cases of Frank J. Larrien, Esteban Venero and Jose Gonzalez have not been ascertained though demand has been made for them both at Havana and Madrid, with a further demand that they be at once formulated and communicated that the prisoners be released. The secretary adds that in addition to the 74 cases, nine correspondents of various newspapers in the United States have been expelled from Cuba by the Spanish authorities after temporary detention by the military.

He also says that no American citizen has been sentenced to or confined at Ceuta, and closes with the statement that demands have been made upon the Spanish government in every case where trial seems to be unreasonably delayed that it go forward at once or that the prisoner be released.

WEYLER'S BLUFF ENDORSED.

Spain Claims Havana and Matanzas Provinces Are Pacified.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The almost complete pacification of Havana and Matanzas provinces in the western part of the island of Cuba is announced in the following dispatch received at the Spanish legation here from the Spanish minister of foreign affairs:

"Weyler, at the head of 14 battalions, has repeatedly traversed the provinces of Havana and Matanzas, obliging the principal rebel leaders to fly to Las Villas. Weyler considers that now in Havana and Matanzas there remain no nucleus of rebels or organized bands to disperse, and that both provinces may be considered as almost completely pacified. The sugar growers in these provinces are now grinding cane without molestation."

The officials of the legation regard the achievements of General Weyler and the announcement of the foreign affairs office as of great importance. The center part of the island, they say, has been in a state of pacification, and now that the western part has been brought to a similar state, the rebels it is stated are confined in their movements to some of the eastern provinces. Following close on this announcement it is expected Premier Canovas will promulgate the reforms for Cuba voted by the cortes in 1895, but withheld until the island shall have been regarded as pacified to a degree warranting their application.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT.

Intense Cold Continues All Over the Country.

LOWEST TEMPERATURE KNOWN

Throughout the Ohio Valley and the Lake Region—Fair Weather Will Prevail Likely All of Today—Much Colder Weather Promised for the South.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The reports received by the weather bureau show the intense cold wave to be general over the entire United States and there are no indications of relief at present.

The temperature has fallen decidedly in the southern and middle Atlantic states and it has risen slowly in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valley and over the greater portion of the lake regions. It continues below zero as far south as the Ohio valley and it is below freezing on the Texas coast and generally in the interior of the Gulf states.

The weather is generally clear except in the St. Lawrence valley, the Gulf states and central Rocky mountain districts, where local snows are reported. The indications are that generally fair weather will prevail all of today in the central valleys and on the Atlantic coast north of Florida. The temperature will continue low, but will rise slowly in the states of the central and upper Mississippi valley. It will be much colder on the southern Atlantic and east Gulf coasts with freezing weather in Northern Florida tonight.

Throughout the Ohio valley and the lake region the prevailing cold wave has been accompanied by lower temperature than any previously recorded by the weather bureau for this season of the year. Following are some minimum temperatures, with their relation to the lowest previously recorded during the last ten days of January, viz: Chicago, minus 20 degrees, 3 degrees below; Indianapolis, minus 14, 3 degrees below; Cincinnati, minus 10, 2 degrees below; Pittsburgh, minus 8, 6 degrees below; Detroit, minus 14, 6 degrees below; Sault Ste Marie, minus 18, 6 degrees below.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—In the suburbs the mercury was reported all the way from 30 to 40 below, but the official thermometer at the weather bureau office gave 26 below as the lowest.

Edmonton with 26 below was the coldest place, officially, in the northwest. Dunth and Moorhead both recorded 28 and Bismarck, Miles City, Helena and Huron gave 24.

Bismarck, S. D., Jan. 26.—The wind is still blowing 30 miles an hour and the temperature is 22 below. Trains are snowbound. There is undoubtedly much suffering among farmers and others exposed to the storm's fury and many have probably perished. The loss of cattle on the ranges will be frightful.

Bozeman, Mont., Jan. 26.—The thermometer fell 48 degrees in ten hours and in the first 24 hours fell 60 degrees, something never known before. It has been 28 below.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 26.—The thermometer here registered 22 below. It is clear and still.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 26.—Railroad traffic is delayed on both the Northwestern and St. Paul roads and cars have been abandoned on the Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha electric road.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 26.—The storm has abated but the intense cold prevails all over the state. Thermometer registered 25 below.

Huron, S. D., Jan. 26.—The most complete snow blockade in the history of this portion of the northwest since 1881 now prevails. Here the thermometer registered 26 below zero and touched 30 in other sections. Fears are entertained for settlers in the remote districts, where fuel is scarce. The Chicago and Northwestern has sent a plow to open the line to Pierre and relieve the eastbound express, which has been held at Highmore since Saturday morning. This train has 40 passengers. The Chicago and Milwaukee road in completely blocked here and the Great Northern will not be open for several days.

New York, Jan. 26.—The threatening antics of the weather for some time past, culminated in the most severe cold throughout the state of New York since this season.

In New York city the mercury got down to the record point of the year and in the upper part of the state it succeeded in disappearing almost entirely. Reports from Canada indicate an even more rigorous condition of affairs, but it was in the large cities of this state that the direful effects of the cold wave were the most painfully apparent. The poor of this city suffered terribly for they had not alone to contend against the low temperature, but against a biting wind that opened up the crevices and cut its way through the broken windows and under the doors.

The thermometer registered 5 degrees below and the wind blew about 20 miles an hour. Along the coast the gale was of a more furious nature, and vessels that arrived over the bar came with their decks well loaded down with ice and their masts covered with the frozen masses of water.

In other parts of the state a terrific snowstorm has raged. In Oswego and Onondago counties a sweeping storm prevailed, accompanied with unusual cold. At Buffalo the wind blew 44 miles an hour, bringing with it a drifting fall of snow. For the first time this winter, Erie lake was frozen from shore to shore. Syracuse experienced the worst snowstorm of the year, but at that place the mercury did not go below 5 degrees.

The reports from Saranac lake show that a terrific storm has been raging in that section. The New York train that to place was late, and the Chateaufort from Plattsburg, at the time of writing, was an hour and a half overdue and seemed to have been lost somewhere in the snow drifts.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Captain Joyce, commanding the Fourth district, in which the poor of St. Louis live, reports widespread destitution and suffering. The river business was at a standstill on account of the cold weather.

ERLINGTON, Ia., Jan. 26.—The mercury reached 22 degrees below zero.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—The temperature reached 7 degrees below here.

There is much suffering among the poor.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 26.—The cold in this territory is the most severe since 1893, and many cases of acute suffering are reported among the poor who were unprepared for it.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The weather is moderating very slightly, it being about 2 degrees warmer. Great suffering prevails. Relief measures have been inaugurated.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 26.—The temperature fell to the lowest point in this country recorded for years. Fifty below zero was generally reported from the Red river to Banff in the mountains. The weather is now moderating considerably.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—With a minimum of 20 degrees below zero and a maximum of 10 degrees below yesterday was the coldest day in the history of Chicago.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 26.—The weather bureau reports the following low temperature in Canada: Calgary, N. W. T., 34 below zero; Quappell, N. W. T., 24 below; Winnipeg, 28 below; Parry Sound, Ont., 22 below; Toronto, 7 below; Ottawa, 26 below; Montreal, 24 below; and Quebec, 24 below.

LIL AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—President Cleveland has received a visit from ex-Queen Liliuokalani at the White House. The president greeted the ex-queen in the most kindly fashion, expressing pleasure at her call and stating that he should have felt disappointed had she refrained from making him a visit while she was in Washington. He caused her to be seated, and while the others stood in the background, the president and Liliuokalani chatted with evident interest on both sides for 20 minutes.

In all the talk there was no reference to politics save a brief expression of thanks by Liliuokalani in behalf of the Hawaiian race for his action in withdrawing the annexation treaty which was pending before the senate when the president assumed his office four years ago. No other word was said about "restoration," either past, present or future. The ex-queen referred in feeling terms to the death of Mr. Willis, and the president responded by an eulogy upon the late minister, whom he denominated "a man of sterling honesty, never afraid to do his full duty."

Seventy-Four Arrested by Spaniards in Cuba.

A REPORT MADE TO CONGRESS.

Thirty-Six Have Been Released, 18 Expelled From the Island and 17 Cases Are Still Pending—Nine Newspaper Correspondents Have Been Expelled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Responding to a resolution of inquiry the president has sent to the senate a list of persons claiming to be citizens of the United States who have been arrested on the island of Cuba since Feb. 24, 1895. The list was accompanied by a letter from Secretary Olney, in which he states that since the breaking out of the insurrection to the present time 74 such persons have been arrested, while of these seven have been tried. These are Julio Sanguilly, Louis Someillan, Alfred Laborde, William Gildes, Ona Melton, Charles Barnett and William Leavitt.

In the cases of Sanguilly and Someillan, he says, appeals have been taken and in the cases of the other five Competitor prisoners a new trial has been ordered. Thirty-six of the persons arrested have been released, after the charges against them had been investigated and found to be baseless. Eighteen have been expelled from the island after periods of confinement lasting from a few days to a year, while 17 cases are still pending. The charges against 14 of these are as follows:

Sedition and rebellion—Caspar A. Betancourt, Joseph L. Cepero. Rebellion—George W. Aguirre. Rebellion with arms in hand—Mannuel Fernandez Chacnelo, Oscar Cespedes, Frank Agramante and Thomas Julio Sainz. Purchase and concealment of arms and ammunition—Antonio Suarez Del Villar. Disorderly conduct and insults to Spain—Theodore L. Vives. Landing arms—The five of the Competitor crew mentioned.

In the remaining cases of Frank J. Larrien, Esteben Venero and Jose Gonzalez have never been ascertained, though demand has been made for them both at Havana and Madrid, with a further demand that they be at once formulated and communicated that the secretary adds that in addition to the 74 cases, nine correspondents of various newspapers in the United States have been expelled from Cuba by the Spanish authorities after temporary detention by the military.

WEYLER'S BLUFF ENDORCED.

Spain Claims Havana and Matanzas Provinces Are Pacified.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The almost complete pacification of Havana and Matanzas provinces in the western part of the island of Cuba is announced in the following dispatch received at the Spanish legation here from the Spanish minister of foreign affairs:

"Weyler, at the head of 14 battalions, has repeatedly traversed the provinces of Havana and Matanzas, obliging the principal rebel leaders to fly to Las Villas. Weyler considers that now in Havana and Matanzas there remain no nucleus of rebels or organized bands to disperse, and that both provinces may be considered as almost completely pacified. The sugar growers in these provinces are now grinding cane without molestation."

The officials of the legation regard the achievements of General Weyler and the announcement of the foreign affairs office as of great importance. The center part of the island, they say, has been in a state of pacification, and now that the western part has been brought to a similar state, the rebels it is stated are confined in their movements to some of the eastern provinces. Following close on this announcement is expected Premier Canovas will promulgate the reforms for Cuba voted by the cortes in 1895, but withheld until the island shall have been regarded as pacified to a degree warranting their application.

Miss Gothie's body was horribly bruised and death must have been instantaneous; both of Mr. Graeber's feet were frozen and he was almost dead from exposure. It is feared that he cannot recover. The couple were engaged to be married.

TWO PLANS CONSIDERED

School Board May Not Build This Year.

ADDITIONS WILL DO AS WELL

If Land Is Too Valuable Rooms Will Be Added to the East End and Grant Street Schools, Instead of Erecting a Structure.

It is possible that the board of education will not build another school, but will add a number of rooms to the East End and Grant street buildings.

The crowded condition of the schools has made it imperative that something be done. Rooms in East End and on the hill have more than their quota, and before the diphtheria came to frighten parents and keep children at home the Central school and all other buildings had more than they could accommodate. The law specifically says the board must provide room for all who apply, and that is what the school authorities are just now worrying about. The law also says that no more than $1,500 can be spent at one time without the consent of the people, and members of the board think it would be a poor school house they could rear for this amount, particularly when it is remembered they are compelled to purchase ground. It is proposed that instead of a new building the board spend what money they are permitted to use in adding to the East End and Grant street schools. This is believed would relieve the Central school, and afford facilities almost as well as a new building, and be very much cheaper.

FAUST.

The Scenic Effects Will Be a Feature of the Production.

The version of "Faust," to be presented at the Grand tonight, closely follows the great story of Goethe, the only striking difference being the interjection of the Broken scene in the fourth act. The scenic effects are elaborate, brilliant and clever. From the study in the first to the taking away of Faust in the last there is an artistic touch which never departs from the true intention. The advance sale of seats is larger than usual.

S. F. Fritz, of 677 Sedgwick street, Chicago, says: "I had a severe cough which settled on my lungs. I tried a number of advertised remedies and also placed myself under treatment of several physicians, with no benefit. I was recommended to try Foley's Honey and Tar. With little expectation of getting relief, I purchased a bottle. I had taken but few doses when I felt greatly improved; I was enabled to sleep, spitting of blood ceased, and by the time I had taken the second bottle I was entirely well. It saved my life."

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

Trains Were Late.

The early train east did not arrive here until 8:30 this morning, being delayed several hours by a wreck at Ravenna. A freight car was derailed at that point. The cold has had a tendency to disarrange the railroad schedule the majority of the trains arriving late. The noon train yesterday was 50 minutes behind time.

WELLSVILLE.

PHILLIPS CAN'T EXPLAIN.

He Does Not Know Why He Stole That Cash Box.

Alonzo Phillips, the boy who robbed Turner's butcher wagon last Saturday, is still in the city prison. Mayor Jones being unable to be about, has not given him a hearing, and it is probable young Phillips will be taken to the Lisbon today where he will be placed in the county jail to await trial. In conversation with an officer yesterday the boy stated that he had not premeditated the robbery, but when Turner's wagon passed he was seized with an uncontrollable desire to have possession of the cash box; that he had never stolen before, and that he didn't know how to explain his wickedness. Young Phillips comes of a respectable family, and his parents deeply deplore the boy's actions. Mr. Turner does not desire to prosecute Phillips, and makes the statement that it rests entirely with the authorities as to what disposition is made of the case.

TEN HOURS A DAY.

The Machine Shop Employees Resume the Old Time.

It has been a long time since Wellsville was so thoroughly pleased as when the announcement was made that the employees of the machine shops would work 10 hours a day and every day in the week. The machinists have so long been deprived of regular employment that the news was glad tidings of the most cheering kind. This puts all departments of the railroad at work as usual except the car shops, and it is understood full time will be resumed in them as soon as the days are long enough.

THE NEW MISSION.

It Will Be Dedicated Next Saturday by Doctor Reager.

The mission of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will be dedicated next Saturday. A good program has been prepared, and Doctor Reager will make an address. All the members are looking forward to the event with expectation. The founding of the mission is the outgrowth of a great deal of arduous labor on the part of the members who are deeply interested in the project.

The News of Wellsville.

Noah, the son of O. D. Calhoun, is in bed with the measles. The disease has taken a firm hold on Wellsville, and there are many cases in town.

Miss Allison, who has been the guest of her aunt, Miss Sarah Allison, has returned to Sharon, Pa., where her grandmother is very ill.

A sleighing party made up of East Liverpool and Wellsville young people will leave the former place this evening for Industry. They start from the Humbrick house at 7 o'clock.

Crossed wires caused two false wreck alarms at the shops yesterday afternoon. The subscription list of the News Review is constantly growing. Wellsville appreciates a newspaper.

It is understood that Liverpool's Rovers will give a minstrel show at the Cooper Opera House at an early date, and that Wellsville talent will play an important part in the performance. If the experiment is successful the company will play at other points in the valley.

May Close Tonight.

Considerable shore ice is accumulating, and the river is full of great cakes. The channel will close before morning if the weather does not moderate. The Ollie Neville is tied up on this side.

A Change in the Force.

George Maginnis will give up his position at the freight depot Saturday evening, and take one with Armour & Co., in Pittsburgh, Monday. W. F. Steele will be his successor.

MORE DEVILTRY.

Two Long Daggers Found in the Demon's Cell.

The following from Columbus shows that Ira Marlatt's desire for blood has not left him:

"Guard Pritner of the penitentiary has made a valuable discovery about Ira Marlatt. Pritner has been in charge of him for months, and notices that about the middle of each lunar month Marlatt becomes sulky and gloomy. Today one of these spells came on and the cell was searched. Two long daggers were found, though Marlatt is kept in a cell specially constructed to keep him from getting weapons of any kind. More guards will be put on, and a determined effort will be made to discover where the weapons come from."

THE CHILD IS WELL.

Walker's Unfortunate Soon Recovered Her Strength.

The little child who was burned at her home in Walker a few weeks ago has recovered. When the accident occurred she was believed to be fatally injured.

There is a show of prosperity at the Walker works. Work is abundant, and there are plenty of hands to do it. The concern have orders enough to justify the assumption of a big run.

Tramps are abundant at the plant every night. No effort is made to drive them away, and they are allowed to occupy the most comfortable places they can find.

TO EAT TOGETHER.

Alliance and East Liverpool Will Be Friends in Washington.

Captain Hill is in receipt of a letter from Captain Weybrecht, of Company K, of Alliance, asking that the local company unite with his command and jointly arrange for the matter of sustenance during the Washington trip. He suggests the two companies use one baggage car in which they can alternately dine. Captain Weybrecht also agrees to see to it that the car is fitted with an excellent range for cooking.

GOOD WORDS OF MERCER

Nick Young Says He Leads In the Big League.

NO PITCHER IS A BIT BETTER

He Not Only Pitches, but Does Good Work on the Coach Line—Gets the Best Salary—Not Much Faith in the Reported Change to New York.

A Pittsburg paper in a dispatch from Washington says Manager Wagner would not part with Winnie Mercer for a team of Russies. Nick Young the president of the league has the following to say on the subject:

"In my judgment there is no comparison between Rusie and Mercer. The latter is a credit to the national game. I am told that Mr. Wagner pays him the highest salary that is received by any pitcher in the league. What the figure is does not concern me, but I know that Mercer is worth every dollar his contract calls for. I am informed that he made no demand on Mr. Wagner for an increase, and has never tried to dictate the terms of his contract. There are few pitchers in Mercer's class. He is not only willing to go in day after day, but he goes out on the coaching lines and pulls for victory harder than the average pitcher. Aside from his skill as a pitcher he is an A batter and base runner, and he fills his position as good as any pitcher in the league. In addition to his qualifications as a ball player he is a gentleman, and I do not believe Mr. Wagner could be tempted to part with him."

The dispatch then states: "The above is a very strong endorsement for Mercer, and it is believed he prefers to remain in Washington. It is quite possible that ex-Senator Bill Joyce may be at the bottom of the Rusie-Mercer fake. Scrappy not only appreciates the value of Mercer, but he also desires to cripple the Wagnerian combination to get revenge on Mr. Wagner and Gus Schmetz. Scrappy knows how solid Mercer is with the Washington fans, and he realizes that a general protest would go up if Mercer is bartered for dirty money."

A SUCCESS.

The Cone System of Firing Pleases Standard Officials.

The experiments with the Saeger cone firing system in the kilns of the Standard proved a flattering success, and the company is more than pleased with the result. D. C. Thomas, a graduate of the school of ceramics, of Columbus, introduced the system here, which, in conjunction with a number of other improved methods, he hopes soon to have in operation.

Two Judgments.

HE KNEW THE SIGNS.

John Bancks Did Not Have to Be a Mind Reader.

"John," said Mrs. Bancks as she came in from outside radiant with news, "I've been over to Mrs. Smith's for a few minutes." "A few minutes," interrupted Mr. Bancks, looking at his watch. "One hour and 20 minutes, for I timed you." "Well, I like that, John Bancks. Who asked you to keep tally on me?" "I wanted to go out myself this evening, but it's too late now." "I just ran over to tell Mrs. Smith—" "Yes, I know. You just put a shawl over your head like any other neighborhood woman and carried back six eggs you borrowed of her yesterday."

"John"— "And she told you that Johnny had the mumps and Mrs. Jones' Jimmy had the measles and lent you a pattern of a new sleeve?"

"John Bancks"— "She also told you that if Smith didn't give up going out nights and stay home with her and the children, she'd pack up and go home to her mother."

"Oh, you listened, did you, John Bancks?" "I haven't left this chair since you went out. You brought the bowl that you took over the eggs in back with you full of chili sauce and promised to return it when you made yours."

"Before I'd spy on a woman! Supposing I did, is there any harm in it?"

"Not a bit. I only wanted to save you the trouble of repeating what you said to Mrs. Smith and what she said to you. You haven't mentioned the scandal yet."

"What scandal?" "The one Mrs. Smith whispered to you and told you never to breathe to a soul as long as you lived."

"John Bancks, are you a mind reader?" "I don't need to be where you and Mrs. Smith are concerned. I know the signs."

"John!"

"Yes, Mary."

"Just tell me one thing. How did you know about the eggs?"

"Heard you tell the dairyman when he called this morning that you wanted six extra to return some you had borrowed."

"Oh! And about the scandal?"

"It's in tonight's paper and has just struck Mrs. Smith."

"Thanks, John Bancks. You have missed your vocation. You would have made a first class detective. Too bad that so much talent should be thrown away on the home circle!" And Mrs. Bancks went out and slammed the door. —Detroit Free Press.

BEAUTIFUL NEWS REVIEW.

Napoleon Bonaparte, one of the most powerful men in all history, a man continually wrapped in schemes and campaigns, in plots and counter-plots, striving intently and ambitiously for success and power—a man whose utter disregard for human life made his battles the bloodiest the world has ever seen—this man found bitterness in his triumph because he had no heir to whom to bequeath his greatness. Josephine was divorced largely for this reason. Many women are incapable of bearing children. Many more of them are afflicted with disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfair to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is as unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of distinctly feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It's the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

Every woman ought to send 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing a free copy of Dr. Pierce's thousand page "Medical Advice." Women's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHO SAYS SO?

Everybody Who has Used Them and Some of Them are East Liverpool People.

Who told you so? Neighbor So-and-so. Oh, well! That's all right. Testimony differs, doesn't it? The more some people say The less faith we have. But the right man's word is taken at once. That's the difference.

People want East Liverpool reference. Particularly in matters of health. We tell you Doan's Kidney Pills cure. But we are the makers of them. "Who says so?" counts here, doesn't it? East Liverpool people say so, And we give you their addresses. Perhaps you may know them. Active lives bring on kidney troubles. An example of this is:

Mr. G. H. Garner, of 168 Jackson st., the well-known manufacturer of ice cream, says: "I think my trouble started from a cold. It set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor, and I was troubled a good deal with bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt in fact generally used up and as though I was breaking down. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. I seem if anything to be getting worse. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of I made up my mind I would try them and I procured a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. I had not taken over half the box before I was entirely free from all my trouble, my appetite good, and my old time vigor restored. I have recommended them to many of my friends, among them Mr. P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be a No. 1 and well worth a trial by anyone."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, or sent by mail by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

TWO PLANS CONSIDERED

School Board May Not Build This Year.

If Land Is Too Valuable Rooms Will Be Added to the East End and Grant Street Schools, Instead of Erecting a Structure.

It is possible that the board of education will not build another school, but will add a number of rooms to the East End and Grant street buildings.

The crowded condition of the schools has made it imperative that something be done. Rooms in East End and on the hill have more than their quota, and before the diphtheria came to frighten parents and keep children at home the Central school and all other buildings had more than they could accommodate. The law specifically says the board must provide room for all who apply, and that is what the school authorities are just now worrying about.

The law also says that no more than $1,500 can be spent at one time without the consent of the people, and members of the board think it would be a poor school house they could rear for this amount, particularly when it is remembered they are compelled to purchase ground. It is proposed that instead of a new building the board spend what money they are permitted to use in adding to the East End and Grant street schools. This it is believed would relieve the Central school, and afford facilities almost as well as a new building, and be very much cheaper.

FAUST.

The Scenic Effects Will Be a Feature of the Production.

The version of "Faust," to be presented at the Grand tonight, closely follows the great story of Goethe, the only striking difference being the intersection of the Broken scene in the fourth act. The scenic effects are elaborate, brilliant and clever. From the study in the first to the taking away of Faust in the last there is an artistic touch which never departs from the true intention. The advance sale of seats is larger than usual.

S. F. Fritz, of 677 Sedgwick street, Chicago, says: "I had a severe cough which settled on my lungs. I tried a number of advertised remedies and also placed myself under treatment of several physicians, with no benefit. I was recommended to try Foley's Honey and Tar. With little expectation of getting relief, I purchased a bottle. I had taken but few doses when I felt greatly improved; I was enabled to sleep, spitting of blood ceased, and by the time I had taken the second bottle I was entirely well. It saved my life."

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

Trains Were Late.

The early train east did not arrive here until 8:30 this morning, being delayed several hours by a wreck at Ravenna. A freight car was derailed at that point. The cold has had a tendency to disarrange the railroad schedule the majority of the trains arriving late. The noon train yesterday was 50 minutes behind time.

WELLSVILLE.

PHILLIPS CAN'T EXPLAIN.

He Does Not Know Why He Stole That Cash Box.

Alonzo Phillips, the boy who robbed Turner's butcher wagon last Saturday, is still in the city prison. Mayor Jones being unable to be about, has not given him a hearing, and it is probable young Phillips will be taken to the Lisbon today where he will be placed in the county jail to await trial. In conversation with an officer yesterday the boy stated that he had not premeditated the robbery, but when Turner's wagon passed he was seized with an uncontrollable desire to have possession of the cash box; that he had never stolen before, and that he didn't know how to explain his wickedness. Young Phillips comes of a respectable family, and his parents deeply deplore the boy's actions. Mr. Turner does not desire to prosecute Phillips, and makes the statement that it rests entirely with the authorities as to what disposition is made of the case.

GOOD WORDS OF MERCER

Nick Young Says He Leads In the Big League.

A Pittsburgh paper in a dispatch from Washington says Manager Wagner would not part with Winnie Mercer for a team of Russies. Nick Young the president of the league has the following to say on the subject:

"In my judgment there is no comparison between Rusie and Mercer. The latter is a credit to the national game. I am told that Mr. Wagner pays him the highest salary that is received by any pitcher in the league. What the figure is does not concern me, but I know that Mercer is worth every dollar his contract calls for. I am informed that he made no demand on Mr. Wagner for an increase, and has never tried to dictate the terms of his contract. There are few pitchers in Mercer's class. He is not only willing to go in day after day, but he goes out on the coaching lines and pulls for victory harder than the average pitcher. Aside from his skill as a pitcher he is an A batter and base runner, and he fills his position as good as any pitcher in the league. In addition to his qualifications as a ball player he is a gentleman, and I do not believe Mr. Wagner could be tempted to part with him."

The dispatch then states: "The above is a very strong endorsement for Mercer, and it is believed he prefers to remain in Washington. It is quite possible that ex-Senator Bill Joyce may be at the bottom of the Rusie-Mercer fake. Scrapy not only appreciates the value of Mercer, but he also desires to cripple the Wagnerian combination to get revenge on Mr. Wagner and Gus Schmeltz. Scrapy knows how solid Mercer is with the Washington fans, and he realizes that a general protest would go up if Mercer is bartered for dirty money."

HE KNEW THE SIGNS.

John Banks Did Not Have to Be a Mind Reader.

"John," said Mrs. Banks as she came in from outside radiant with news, "I've been over to Mrs. Smith's for a few minutes." "Few minutes," interrupted Mr. Banks, looking at his watch. "One hour and 20 minutes, for I timed you." "Well, I like that, John Banks. Who asked you to keep tally on me?" "I wanted to go out myself this evening, but it's too late now." "I just ran over to tell Mrs. Smith." "Yes, I know. You just put a shawl over your head like any other neighborhood woman and carried back six eggs you borrowed of her yesterday."

"John Banks?" "She also told you that if Smith didn't give up going out nights and stay home with her and the children, she'd pack up and go home to her mother."

"Oh, you listened, did you, John Banks?" "I haven't left this chair since you went out. You brought the bowl that you took over the eggs in back with you full of chili sauce and promised to return it when you made yours."

"Before I'd say a woman! Supposing I did, is there any harm in it?" "Not a bit. I only wanted to save you the trouble of repeating what you said to Mrs. Smith and what she said to you. You haven't mentioned the scandal yet."

"What scandal?" "The one Mrs. Smith whispered to you and told you never to breathe to a soul as long as you lived."

"John Banks, are you a mind reader?" "I don't need to be where you and Mrs. Smith are concerned. I know the signs."

"John?" "Yes, Mary."

"Just tell me one thing. How did you know about the eggs?" "Heard you tell the dairymen when he called this morning that you wanted six extra to return some you had borrowed."

"Oh! And about the scandal?" "It's in tonight's paper and has just struck Mrs. Smith."

"Thanks, John Banks. You have missed your vocation. You would have made a first class detective. Too bad that so much talent should be thrown away on the home circle!" And Mrs. Banks went out and slammed the door. —Detroit Free Press.

disorders of the organs directly feminine so that bearing children would be dangerous to them, and unfair to the children. Every child deserves the heritage of health. The children cannot receive this from a sickly mother. There is no reason why they should have such a thing as "female weakness." It is as unnecessary as it is distressing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all forms of distinctly feminine sickness. It purifies, strengthens and invigorates. It is prepared for just this one purpose and no other. It's the only medicine now before the public for women's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization, by a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

WHO SAYS SO?

Who told you so? Neighbor So-and-so. Oh, well! That's all right. Testimony differs, doesn't it? The more some people say The less faith we have. But the right man's word is taken at once. That's the difference. People want East Liverpool reference. Particularly in matters of health. We tell you Doan's Kidney Pills cure. But we are the makers of them. "Who says so?" people here, doesn't it! East Liverpool counts say so, And we give you their addresses. Perhaps you may know them. Active lives bring on kidney troubles. An example of this is:

Mr. G. H. Garner, of 168 Jackson st., the well-known manufacturer of ice cream, says: "I think my trouble started from a cold. It set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor, and I was troubled a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt in fact generally used up and as though I was breaking down. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. I seem if anything to be getting worse. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of I made up my mind I would try them and I procured a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. I had no taken over half the box before I was entirely free from all my trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I have recommended them to many of my friends, among them Mr. P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be A No. 1 and well worth a trial by any one."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, or sent by mail by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
